Experience

June 2018–Present

Communications lead • Senior management • Sonic Style Ltd

September 2015–June 2018

Marketing advisor • Team leader • Sonic Style Ltd

August 2009–September 2015

Marketing Junior • Marketing team • Sonic Style Ltd

I have worked in marketing for nearly 10 years since I left university. I have been working with a trainer company called Sonic Style where I have helped develop the outward facing communications of the company to incredibly high standards.

Education

University of Guildford, Guildford, United Kingdom

- Hons in Marketing and communication

Communication

As well as being a professional in communication, I ensure that I communicate clearly and with passion to my own team to ensure they understand the level of excitement we must convey in our products.

Leadership

I have been managing a team for around 5 years which is something I greatly enjoy. I started my root in this team and now lead the marketing division.
